Prairie Quills - Writers from Swift Current

Change Is NOT A Four-Letter Word

by Tina Marie Letwiniuk

The Prairie Quills Writers Group is an established writers' group in Swift Current. Currently, there are ten active members, and the writing diversity from these authors range from children's stories to romance adventure novels. Our newest members include a graphic storyteller and a young author of comedic fantasy fiction.

Our writing year begins in September and runs until May, with meetings held on the third Tuesday of every month at 7:00 p.m in Swift Current, SK. Members take turns leading the meetings with a lesson on their particular genre-of-choice, and an assignment given as homework to bring forward to the next meeting. This enables members to broaden their writing skills in areas they normally wouldn't write in. Various workshops and writing activities are planned throughout the year, with the most recent being a weekend writing retreat to Gravelbourg.

Change Is NOT A Four-Letter Word is the Prairie Quill's 6th Anthology and members are currently touring rural libraries promoting the collection. Prairie Quills will be at the Eastend Library Saturday April 28th at 7pm. Everyone welcome!

Writers Workshop with Barbara Klar

Saturday April 28 2018 1:30 - 4pm

Ages 14 and adults

Got a story? Got a poem? Writing a memoir? Through a series of fun exercises, you'll discover how the right words convey not only information but also emotion and insight. This workshop is for writers of fiction, non-fiction, and poetry, and for all skill levels

Barbara Klar has been writing professionally for nearly thirty years. She has published four books of poetry, most recently Cypress, a poetic meditation on the Cypress Hills. She has worked as a tree planter, camp cook, editor, workshop leader, and as a mentor for the Banff Centre's Wired Writing Studio. She recently relocated from west-central Saskatchewan to Eastend.

Please call the Eastend Library during Library hours, to register for the Writers Workshop! or email at eastend@chinook.lib.sk.ca
